SUBJECT-BASED PROGRAMMES

OXFORD, CAMBRIDGE & LONDON

3rd - 10th December 2017 or requested dates throughout the year

With Perceptum's Subject-Based Programmes students have the opportunity to experience their academic area of interest from a global perspective and will be taking an important step into their career. Our programmes can be tailored to meet each group's needs and interests.

Today the UK has one of largest music industries in the world. Many genres of music have arisen from the UK, making it a great location to study music. Our training programme offers music training and the opportunity to visit some of the best music schools in the UK.
